Bill Squires Finally Finds a Fighter He Can Land His Famous Punch On.

OSHTER BILL SQUIRES is a most persevering pug. It took Bill a long time to land one, but now that he has knocked Roche out in four that was punched out of him by Tommy Burns, Jack "Twin" Sullivan and Jim Flynn, and go down the line walloping all comers in the most approved and stood up and slugged yesterday, which was the Australian's game. Squires defense. He blocked like a sieve. Anybody could tap William on the jaw. But as it is a year since Burns knocked aum out, Bill may have learned some of the finer points of the game, as played in America. We'll know more about that when he fights Burns again in England on Mar 11.

TOMMY BURNS is getting pounded. I note, because he laughs at an offer of a $15,000 purse to fight Johnso in England. It is hard to magine why Burns shouldn't crack a few smiles. Over in England he has cleaned up more than $60,000 in the last six months. A share of a $15,000 purse for fighting a big heavyweight-and a dangerous one-is a good joke. It is a particularly good joke, in view of the fact that both Jim Coffroth, of California, and Tex Rickard, of Nevada, have offered just double that amount for the fight with Johnson. Burns, like any other man of sense, wants all the money he can command for his services. He would be a simpleton to fight Johnson for a $16.000 purse when it is only necessary for him to travel about ten days to reach a battle-ground that offers twice as much maney for the bout. Burns will fight Johnson, but he will ean up all the easy money in sight sfore he tackles the bis coon.

AMMY LANGFORD will soon be off for that gay Paree, where he will join J. Johnson and Sammy McVey. Paris is the one town on earth where the game is just as good for a darkey as for a white man-and perhaps a little pressed with McVey, what will ney think of the Zulu nation when they see Johnson and Langford in action? Both of these scrappers outclass McVey by about three-quarters of a mile.

And what a field for faking Paris be when McVey, Johnson and will be when McVey, Johnson and Langford begin challenging each other, and meeting in the ring. The rest callenge will bring about great excitement, and the first fight will fill the biggest club in Paris. All three are adepts at the game of faking, and over in Paris they know so little about the new sport that Johnson, McVey and Langford will have no trouble in getting away with it, and keeping the extended.

Club-House Play Gets Stronger at Jamaica

BY J. TOD SLOAN

TNFAVORABLE weather conditions kept the attendance at the second day of the Jamaica meeting away down, and the amount of money sent into the ring was correspondingly small. The play in the clubhouse, however, took on a new lease of life, and exceeded that of any day so far this year. The regulars who attended yesterday were tired and cold, and it was a tickled crowd when the last race had been run.

Noticeable among those present yesterday were Eugene Woods. Senator Reynolds and Steve Elkins, all earnests. ly striving to pick winners. Senator the club-house members are wondering club-house members are wondering he did it. Oh, yes! The Senator land them once in a while.

Jack McGuiness, who, by the way, is not living up to his reputation of being extremely lucky, wagered $1,800 on The Pippin in the last race. If Jack's losing ioes land them once in a while.

Possibly the old sprinter has not recovered from the case of blood poisoning he received at Sheepshead Bay last season shortly after he had won the Flash Stakes. Frank Weir, his trainer, still believes that Roseben will come around all right later in the season, but there are many of the regulars who do not share this belief. Roseben is not entered in the Metropolitan Handleap. an event in which he has twice been defeated, but he is entered in some sprints most of them over the Belmont Park straightaway, a course the horse
